

Red Bull Rookie Gish Hires RocketMotoGroup For Representation

January 21, 2009 (El Dorado Hills, CA) -- RocketMotoGroup, LLC (RMG), announced today that U.S. Red Bull Rookie racer Cameron Gish has signed an agreement for management representation with RocketMotoGroup, beginning with the 2009 season.

"The RMG team mapped out a plan for my success that fits with the goals and dreams of me and my family. They stayed true to what I want to accomplish in my racing career" says Gish. "It was an easy decision for me to sign on with RMG; based on their passion, drive and willingness to succeed. I'm excited to begin working with them on laying the groundwork for my 2009 season and the future."

Founded by Rob Kemp and Shaunn Fullmer, RocketMotoGroup, LLC has recently announced their athlete representation business. RocketMotoGroup offers management representation as part of a growing list of motor sports related services the company provides.

"Cameron contacted RocketMotoGroup after learning of our business from Shaun Summers (<http://www.sportbikenight.com/>), whom we have a longstanding relationship with," says Rob. "After a successful inaugural season as a Red Bull Rookie, Cameron expressed the desire to drive his career even further. We immediately sprang into action developing a game plan to address his short and long term goals. We are extremely excited to represent such a talented and outstanding young man." RMG would like to thank Team65 and D&W Images for their tireless efforts and all of the support they have provided Cameron this past year.

About Cameron Gish

Born in 1994, Cameron Gish achieved early success in the Northern California Mini Road Racing Association and Supermoto USA. In 2008, Cameron was selected to join 23 other competitors (out of 600 that tried out) for the inaugural season of the Red Bull Rookies Cup (<http://www.redbullrookiescup.com/>) where he finished in the top 15 of the overall standings.

Cameron is currently exploring racing opportunities for the 2009 season.
