

AMA PRO SUPERSPORT RIDER McGOEY SIGNS WITH ROCKETMOTOGROUP, LLC FOR REPRESENTATION

January 31, 2009 (El Dorado Hills, CA) – RocketMotoGroup, LLC (RMG), announced today that AMA Pro SuperSport racer Shane McGoey has signed an agreement for management representation with RocketMotoGroup, beginning with the 2009 season.

“Looking forward to blitzing my rookie season of AMA road racing, the RMG team really stood out as folks who could help me attain my goals,” says McGoey.

Hailing from Cameron Park, California, Shane will attack the 2009 AMA ProSuperSport West Championship, as well as challenge the AFM 600cc class champions, and compete in select WERA National events. Shane heads to next months’ Daytona AMA Pro Racing event with a full head of steam and the drive to attain success. Shane wishes to thank Kawasaki – Team Green, MDK Motorsports, Keigwins @ the Track and LaMonica’s for all of the support in helping him realize his dreams. “I want to especially thank Forrest, Cory, Lance, Bruce and Aaron for all the help they have given me.”

Founded by Rob Kemp and Shaunn Fullmer, RocketMotoGroup, LLC is a new business specializing in representation for amateur and professional riders as part of a growing list of motor sports related services the company provides.

About Shane McGoey

Born in 1992, Shane began racing at the young age of twelve years old. Since climbing aboard a Derbi racing bike, Shane achieved Novice Championships on 600cc machines in 2007. In 2008, Shane earned multiple race victories and podium finishes across the West Coast in WERA West, WSMC, and podium finishes in WERA National and Endurance events.

For 2009, Shane will campaign a highly competitive privateer program in the AMA ProSuperSport class. He kicks off his season riding in Daytona.
